Places to Visit Agra

Fatehpur Sikri:

- A unique blend of architectural excellence and religious beliefs define the Fatehpur Sikri.
- This monument was built by Akbar to honour Sheikh Salim Chishti, a great Sufi Saint.
- Fatehpur Sikri was the Capital of the Mughal Empire for over 15 years.
- It is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and an ancient city, which was once deserted for sixteen long years.
- Visiting Hours: From Sunrise to Sunset.

Places to Visit Agra

Mughal Heritage Walk Through Kachhpura Village:

- The Mughal Heritage Walk is a community-based tourism initiative that was started by CURE (Center for Urban and Regional Excellence) to help villagers make an income from tourism and improve their living conditions.
- It takes place on the riverside opposite the Taj Mahal, goes through Kachhpura village, and ends at Mehtab Bagh. Fatehpur Sikri was the Capital of the Mughal Empire for over 15 years.

Places to Visit Agra

Mehtab Bagh:

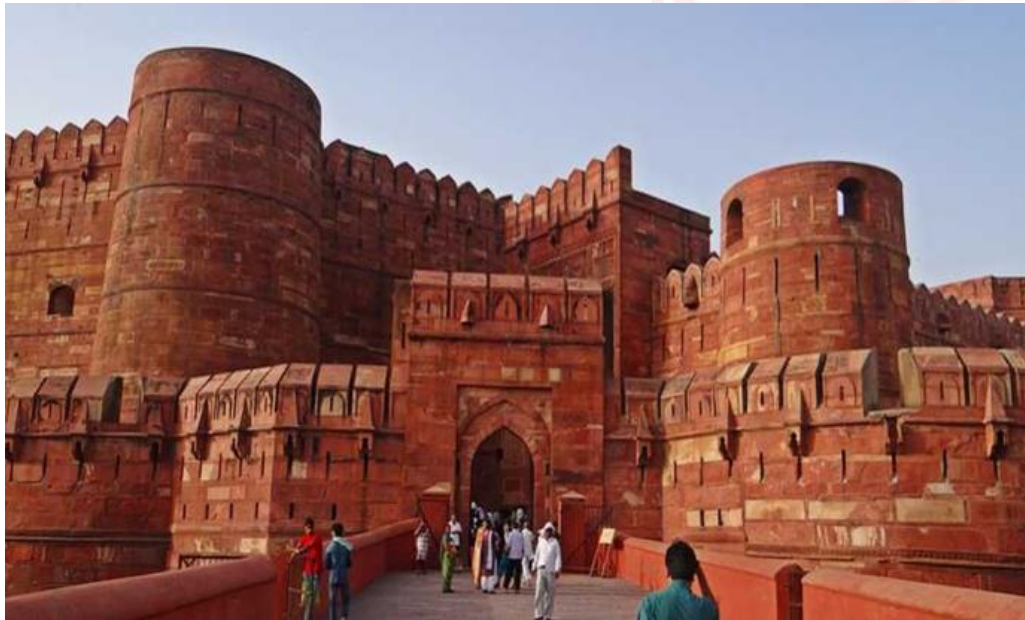

- This 25 acre Mughal garden complex is situated directly opposite the monument and was actually built before the Taj, by Emperor Babur
- You can clearly see the Taj from across the river bank. One such place with a view to remember is Mehtab Bagh, the "Moonlight Garden".

Places to Visit Agra

Agra Fort:

- The Red Fort of Agra or Agra Fort was built by Emperor Akbar in 1573. It is, in fact, a massive fortification located on the right bank of the River Yamuna in Agra.
- The fort was once the erstwhile residence of the Mughals until the year 1638.
- One of the UNESCO World Heritage Sites and lies at a distance of 2.5 kilometres from another wonder of the modern world - The Famous Taj Mahal.

Places to Visit Delhi

India Gate:

- The towering archway of India Gate at the centre of New Delhi is a war memorial, built in memory of the Indian soldiers who lost their lives fighting for the British Army in World War I.
- At night it glows warmly under floodlights, and the gardens that line its boulevard are a popular place to enjoy a warm summer's evening.
- There's also a fun Children's Park that's ideal for kids.

Places to Visit Delhi

Qutub Minar:

- The Qutub Minar, also spelled as Qutab Minar or Qutub Minar, is a minaret that forms part of the Qutub complex, a UNESCO World Heritage Site in the Mehrauli area of Delhi.
- The Minar is surrounded by several historically significant monuments of Qutub Minar.
- The lowest three comprise fluted cylindrical shafts or columns of pale red sandstone, separated by flanges and by storeyed balconies, carried on Muqarnas corbels.

Places to Visit Delhi

Red Fort:

- Delhi's most famous monument, the Red Fort, stands not only as a powerful reminder of the Mughal era India but also a symbol of India's struggle for freedom.
- It was built by fifth Mughal emperor Shah Jahan, when he decided to shift his capital there from Agra in 1638.
- The fort's turbulent history includes being captured by the Sikhs and the British.
- To take your imagination back to the ancient era, a one hour sound and light show of the fort's history is held each evening.

Places to Visit Delhi

Jama Masjid:

- Jama Masjid is another marvellous treasure of the Old City, and it's one of the largest mosque in India.
- Its courtyard can hold an incredible 25,000 devotees. The mosque took 12 years to build, and was completed in 1656.
- A strenuous climb to the top of its southern tower will reward you with a stunning view across the rooftops of Delhi.
- The building consists of three great gates, four towers and two minarets made from a combination of red sandstone and white marble.

Places to Visit Delhi
