~ Home to White Sands , Blue Seas and Green Mountains

Duration:- 2 Nights/3 Days

Number of Delegates:- 50

Overview of Alibaug

- Alibaug is surrounded by sea on three sides, it is very commonly known as the 'Goa' of Maharashtra.
- Earlier, Alibaug was known as Kolaba, attributed to the Kolaba Fort which was built by Shivaji in 1680 CE.
- Kashid is a beach town on the shores of the Arabian Sea, in the North Konkan region of Maharashtra, India. It is located 30 km from Alibag and 135 km from Mumbai on the Alibaug-Murud road.
- The waves here are unusually high and can be a paradise for surfing. Kashid was not known as a tourist attraction till the mid 90s. It was only after travellers to Murud Janjira started stopping to spend some time after noticing the beauty of the beach.
- The best time to visit Alibag is from October to March while November to February is the peak season.

How to Reach Alibaug

- By Water

Alibaug is located 110 kilometres (68 miles) south of Mumbai. It takes about an hour to reach Mandawa Jetty by ferry, or 15 minutes by speedboat, from the Gateway of India in south Mumbai's Colaba neighbourhood.

From Alibaug the beach is another 30-45 minutes south, by bus or auto rickshaw.

Ferries operate from morning until evening (around 6 a.m. to 6 p.m.) throughout the year, except during the monsoon season from June to September. Services usually resume again in late August, but it depends on weather conditions.

In addition, lesser-known ferries that carry motorcycles depart from Ferry Wharf at the dockyards near Mazgaon. The ferries go to Revas jetty and take around 1.5 hours to get there.

- By Road

Alibaug can be reached by road via the Mumbai-Goa Highway (NH-17). The journey takes approximately three hours from Mumbai.

Places to visit to Alibaug

Alibaug Beach

Located along the coast of the Arabian Sea, the Alibaug Beach is a picturesque stretch of sand situated in Maharashtra. Alibaug is a black-sand beach which offers the panoramic sight of the Kolaba fort from the shores.

The beach is famous for its picturesque sceneries of sunrise and sunset that one must marvel when in Alibag. It is a great place to spend time in leisure while you marvel at the Arabian sea and landscapes of sunrise, sunset and the silhouette of the Kolaba Fort.

Kolaba Fort

Situated amidst the sea and surrounded by waters of Arabian sea from all sides, Kolaba fort or Alibag fort is one of the most important tourist attraction in Alibag. The area within the fort itself is dotted with historical artefacts and vestiges such as cannons and carvings of animals and birds on the fort walls.

The Kolaba Fort has been designated a nationally protected monument by the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) due to its historical importance.

Places to visit to Alibaug

Nagaon Beach

Located on the shores of the Arabian sea, Nagaon beach is 9 km away from the Alibaug city centre. Lined with the subtle greenery of palms, betel, and Suru trees, the yellow stretch of the beach is most famous for its cleanliness. The shore of Nagaon beach stretches for 3 km meeting the waves of the Arabian sea. Sunsets are especially picturesque here and an evening walk is a wonderful way to end your day at the beach. The beach shacks serving the finger-licking seafood is another amenity that Nagaon beach offers to its visitors.

Mandwa Beach

At a distance of 13 km from Kihim Beach, 19 km from Alibaug, Mandwa Beach is a scenic beach situated at Mandwa village in Raigad district of Maharashtra, India. Mandwa is a stunning beach thronged by number of tourists. The beach is isolated from crowd and pollution. The village of Mandwa, which is located nearby, attracts visitors due to the presence of dense coconut trees. The beautiful sunset view from the beach is really picturesque. This place is known for a church, Buddhist caves, a synagogue, a temple and several ruins of Portuguese.

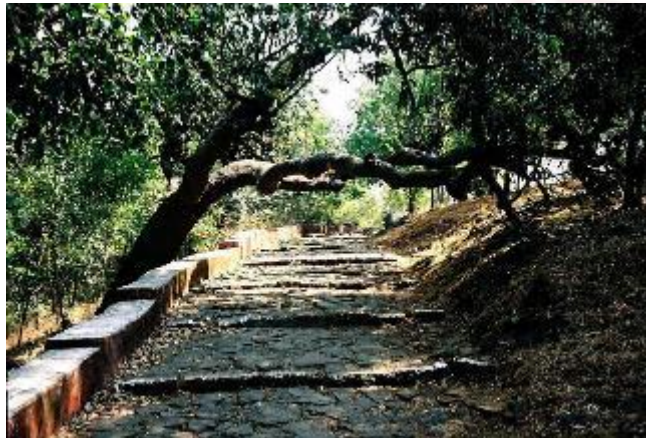

Places to visit to Alibaug

Kihim Beach

Interspersed with dense coconut trees and enveloped with a pollution free green atmosphere, the Kihim Beach is famous for a variety of reasons. Located just 12 kilometres from Alibaug and 120 kilometres away from Mumbai, the proximity of the beach to Mumbai adds to the increasing reputation of the beach. The beach is adorned with incredible white sand, with distinct types of shells scattered all over. The area is surrounded by various trees and is dotted by coconut trees and wildflowers, which are often visited by colourful butterflies.

Kanakeshwar forest

The beautiful, dense and majestically mesmerizing lush green Kanakeshwar Forest is known for its richness and abundance of flora and fauna.

Poisonous snakes, Panthers, Leopards, Wild boars can be spotted here roaming around the forest.

Places to visit to Kashid

Kasim Beach

Located at a distance of around 30 kms from the main town of Alibaug in Kashid, Kasim Beach spells peace, quietude and serenity in all their forms. The beach has an extensive coastline ideal for long walks or simply to sit and bask in the sun. One of the relatively quieter beaches in the area, it has shining silver sands and is lined with gorgeous palm trees. The place is frequented both by couple who want to spend some moments of solitude and also by others who are looking for a refreshing break from the pell mell of the city.

Murud- Janjira Fort

About 21 km from Kashid Beach, this fort is surrounded by the turquoise colored waters of the Arabian Sea. Dating back to 15th century AD, built under the rule of Emperor Malik Amber, the ruler of Ahmednagar, the structure sports an enchanting entrance to the fort depicting a carving of a tiger trapped by six elephants. The structure is known for the canons here. The fort was built in order to protect it from the pirates of the sea.

Places to visit to Kashid

Kashid Beach

Located almost 30 km from Alibaug and situated on the coasts of Arabian Sea, Kashid Beach is famous for its beautiful clear blue water, white colour sand and lovely streams. The beach is outstretched across 3 Km and surrounded by shrubs and trees called Casuarina, which enhance the natural charms of this destination. The beautiful landscape of Kashid has a number of enticing things to do in and about itself. The shoreline of the beach is adorned with beautiful white sand for as long as 130 kilometres.

Korlai fort

The Korlai Fort is an extensive military fortification primarily occupied by the Portuguese during the 1500's. The Korlai Fort is huge, and it is said that in its heyday, the enclosure could fit more than 7,000 horses and as many men! The strategic significance of the fort was revealed during invasions, as it is located on the slopes of a hill, housing a towering lighthouse and eleven large gates, making it hard to infiltrate. Stretching over a length of 2828 feet and breadth of 89 feet, the enclosement overlooks a small fishing community and provides commanding views of the creek.
