— A CITY THAT NEVER SLEEPS

DURATION: 02 N / 03D

NO. OF PAX: 50

TRIP NAVIGATOR
PIONEERING CORPORATE TRAVEL & EVENTS

Overview

Mumbai is in all ways a mega-city driven by power, wealth, glamour and fame which attracts people to give shape to their dreams and aspirations. But it is also a city with strong historical links, wonderful British architecture, museums, beaches, places of worship, and above all, a true galaxy of stars where Bollywood reigns supreme.

It is said that every train that comes to Mumbai brings on it hundreds of people from across India who are not only drawn to 'experience' the city's mesmerising attractions but would also like to make it their home. A city of diverse cultures and a melting pot of commerce, industry, entertainment, enterprise, and politics, Mumbai's trysts with wealth and fame have, however, been recent

Best time to Visit – November to February

Places to visit

1) Marine Drive

Marine Drive is a km long, arc shaped boulevard along the South Mumbai coast, starting from the southern end of Nariman Point and ending at the famous Chowpatty beach. The Marine Drive is also known as the Queen's necklace on account of its shape and yellow streetlights. It makes for a spectacular view at night People come to walk here in the evening to experience the brilliant sunset.

One of the most distinguished monuments in Mumbai, it was built in the year 1924 as a commemoration of the visit of King George V and Queen Mary to Mumbai. The imposing structure of the monument is a beautiful confluence of Indian, Arabic and Western architecture and has become a popular tourist hub. The basalt arch of the Gateway served as the entry and exit access to India through waterways before independence and was the exit point from where the last British ship left India for England.

2) Gateway of India

3) Girgaon Chowpatty

Located in the heart of the city, this beach is most popular for its local delicacies which most people enjoy whenever they visit Chowpatty Beach. Watching the glorious sunsets from this beach is a sight worth seeing! This beach is a retreat from a tedious routine for many. The sea, adorned by its long stretch of white sand in addition to the magnificent sky above, is like a heavenly dream for anyone who visits this beach. Tourists who visit Mumbai make it a point to visit this beach to experience the peaceful and serene atmosphere.

Juhu beach is the longest beach in Mumbai, and arguably the most popular among tourists as well. Juhu beach is renowned for its wide variety of street food with a very typical Mumbai flavour. The nearby area of Juhu is a posh locality in Mumbai, home to a lot of famous Bollywood and TV celebrities - the most famous being Amitabh Bacchan's bungalow - and it is not very rare to spot a celebrity jogging on the beach. This is also one of the best spots in Mumbai to watch a sunset, with a cool evening breeze.

5) Elephanta Caves

The caves are located on the Elephanta island which is situated at a distance of 11 km from the city of Mumbai. Natively known as Gharapurichi Leni, the Elephanta Caves that exist today are ruins of what were once elaborately painted artworks. It also provides an amazing view of the Mumbai skyline.

The architecture of the caves dates back to the 5th and 8th centuries, but the story of their origin is still a mystery. The caves are dedicated to lord Shiva. It is declared as UNESCO World Heritage Site.

It is a modern railway station in the bustling capital city. The marvellous structure is an awesome illustration of the Victorian-Gothic style of architecture in India. In fact, the railway station, which still functions as usual, is declared as a World Heritage Site under UNESCO. It is one of the most famous historical landmarks in the country that symbolises the pre-independence India. Victoria Terminus was constructed in 1887. It is the Central Railway Headquarter and is well-connected to all the parts of the country.

7) Bandra Worli Sea Link

Bandra Worli Sea Link is one of the few bridges that is a cable-stayed with pre-stressed concrete-steel viaducts to hold it in place. Spanning across the arc of Mumbai's coastline. The bridge is designed to reduce the time travel between Bandra and Worli by a big margin. Overlooking the magnificent blue waters of Mahim Bay. Bandra Worli Sea Link also overlooks the Worli Bridge and has a small park located nearby. The beauty of this attraction is enhanced during the night when twinkling lights adorn the bridge.

The museum is founded by Prince of Wales on 10 January 1922. Adorned with stone and lattice work, the architecture of Museum is a blend of Indian, Mughal and British engineering styles. Now known as 'Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalay', The Prince of Wales Museum is a Grade I Heritage Building of the city and is counted amongst one of the most prominent museums of India. The complex exhibits a myriad collection of ancient artefacts, artwork and sculptors of the country which give a unique insight into our past.
