

SWISS + GERMANY

3N ZURICH + 1N

INNSBRUCK + 2N MUNICH

ABOUT ZURICH

- Culturally vibrant, efficiently run and attractively set at the meeting of river and lake, Zürich is regularly recognised as one of the world's most liveable cities.
- Much of the ancient centre, with its winding lanes and tall church steeples, has been kept lovingly intact. Yet Zürich has also wholeheartedly embraced contemporary trends, with the conversion of old factories into cultural centres and creative new living spaces. Nowhere is that clearer than in Züri-West, the epicentre of the city's nightlife.
- Best time to visit is June-October.

ABOUT INNBRUCK

- Tyrol's capital is a sight to behold. The jagged rock spires of the Nordkette range are so close that within minutes it's possible to travel from the city's heart to over 2000m above sea level and alpine pastures where cowbells chime. Summer and winter activities abound, and it's understandable why some visitors only take a peek at Innsbruck proper before heading for the hills.
- Best time to visit is June-October.

ABOUT MUNICH

- The natural habitat of well-heeled power dressers and Lederhosen-clad thigh-slappers, Mediterranean-style street cafes and Mitteleuropa beer halls, highbrow art and high-tech industry, Germany's unofficial southern capital is a flourishing success story that revels in its own contradictions. If you're looking for Alpine clichés, they're all here, but the Bavarian metropolis has many an unexpected card down its Dirndl.
- But whatever else this city is, it's popular. Statistics show Munich is enticing more visitors than ever, especially in summer and during Oktoberfest, when the entire planet seems to arrive to toast the town.
- Best time to visit is June-October.

A vibrant night scene of a European town square, likely in Germany, during the Christmas season. The main building is a large, historic structure with a steep gabled roof, heavily decorated with warm white string lights and red and gold light displays. The windows are brightly lit from within, and the ground floor features festive decorations and small Christmas trees. To the left, a smaller building with a blue dome and a stone archway is visible. The square is paved with cobblestones, and several people are walking, their figures slightly blurred to suggest movement. Tall, black lampposts with multiple spherical glass globes line the street. The sky is a deep twilight blue with some light clouds.
