

CAMBODIA ~ LAND OF GENUINE SMILES

~ Phnom Penh & Siem Reap

DURATION: 3N / 4D | 100 PAX

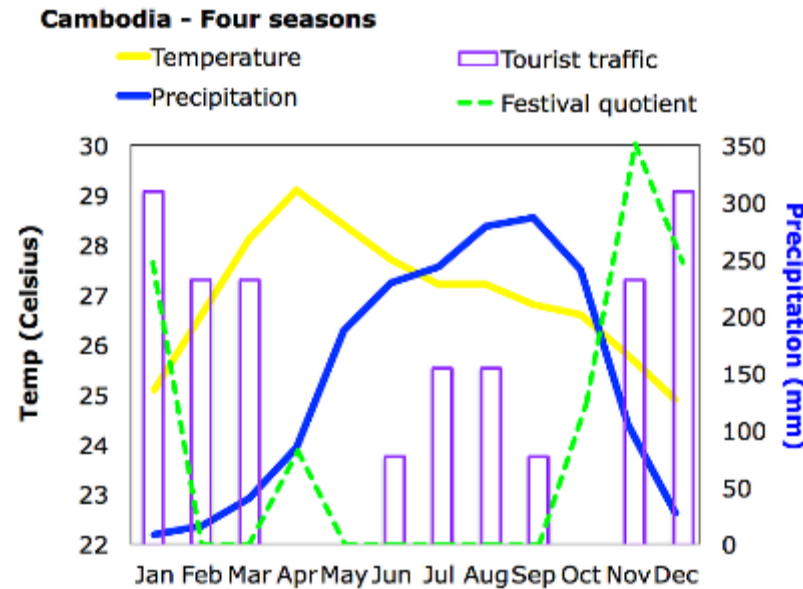

OVERVIEW

- Tourism is one of the main industries in the Kingdom of Cambodia and strong efforts are being made to promote the country as a unique destination, rich in diversity with a fascinating cultural heritage.
- Since the last national election, a new era of peace and political stability has taking root in the country. Opportunities are now available to discover the deepest heart of the Kingdom, travelling in little known areas and understanding more about the Angkor civilization.
- Undoubtedly Cambodia's main attractions are the magnificent Angkor temples, both in scale and beauty, but there is much more on offer than its famous cultural sites.
- As well as the impressive grandeur of the ancient capital, Cambodia has beauty scattered into thousand facets through the Kingdom.
- Visitors can cruise down the Mekong and tributary rivers, go trekking in remote areas and relax on deserted beaches.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

- Low season (Apr-Jun & Sep-Oct): April and May spells hot season, when the mercury hits 40°C and visitors melt. September and October can be wet, but awesome storms and cloud formations accompany the deluge.
- Shoulder (Jul-Aug): Wet in most parts of Cambodia, with high humidity, but the landscapes are emerald green. South Coast can be busy as Western visitors escape for summer holidays while school is out.
- High Season (Nov-Mar) : Cool and windy, with almost Mediterranean temperatures; the best all-round time to be here. Book accommodation in advance during the peak Christmas and New Year period.
