Overview of Yercaud

Yercaud is located in Salem district of Tamil Nadu. Tamil Nadu is blessed with some enchanting hill stations, and Yercaud is one of the finest among those hill stations. It is pretty and peaceful hill station, and is an ideal destination for a blissful vacation amidst the beauty and tranquility of nature. It is also an ideal location if you are in a mood for some fun activities over the weekend. On your trip to Yercaud, you can explore some beautiful places in the town including coffee plantations, waterfalls, parks and much more.

Culture in Yercaud

- Hinduism is the main religion of Yercaud, however, people belonging to other caste and creed also reside here with equal harmony.
- The main languages to be spoken here are Tamil and English.
- The local people of Yercaud basically belong to tribal family known as Vellalas or Malayalis which mean Hill Men.
- The main occupation of the residents here is agriculture as the town is rich in coffee, spices and fruit plantations.
- The local cuisine of Yercaud is predominantly South Indian with main emphasis on rice. The dishes prepared are generally mild to spicy. Rice, grains, lentils and green vegetables form the main ingredients of the cuisine of Yercaud.

Best Time To Visit

- The best time to visit Yercaud is from October to June when the weather is pleasant and conducive enough to enjoy sightseeing and outdoor activities and the temperature ranges between 13°C and 25°C.
- Most of the festivals are celebrated during this period including Diwali that is celebrated in October and Pongal that is celebrated in January.

PLACES TO VISIT

Yercaud Lake:

- Yercaud Lake is also known as the Emerald Lake or Big Lake, the lake at Yercaud is the only naturally formed lake across all the hill stations in Tamil Nadu.
- The lovely garden situated along its banks and the high hills enclosing it from all sides, bestow a charming look and a mesmerising feel to the lake.
- The floating fountain in the lake is an additional attraction.

Kiliyur Falls:

- Kiliyur Falls is a nice waterfall in the Servaroyan hill range of Eastern Ghats in Tamil Nadu, India.
- This is one of the beautiful waterfalls in Salem district and also one of the top Yercaud tourist places. Kiliyur Falls is formed by the overflowing waters of Yercaud Lake.
- The waterfalls drop into the Kiliyur Valley from a height of 300 feet (91 m).

Lady's seat:

- Lady's Seat is a cluster of rocks in the form of a seat on the South West of Shevaroy hills in Yercaud town of Tamil Nadu state.
- It is one of the prime attractions of Yercaud.
- The viewpoint offers panoramic views of Salem town and Ghat Road. It is a nice place to watch the sunset.

Pagoda Point:

- The hilly charm and natural appeal of Yercaud touches every visitor through its view-points that offer panoramic vistas of its surrounding cliffs and townscape.
- The Pagoda Point or Pyramid Point presents amazing sunrise and sunset clicks for the eager eyes.
- Tourists love the place for the vantage view of the Salem city, Kakambadi village and the engulfing cliffs.
