Aga Khan Palace

- A gracious building having Italian arches, salons, suites and spacious lawns.
- The place is a historical landmark.
- Must see is a photographic exhibition, paintings and very rare B&W photos of various epochs in the freedom movement.
- You can visit Samadhi of Kasturba Gandhi which is in the backyard.

Pataleshwar Cave Temple

- The Pataleshwar Cave Temple (also called Panchaleshvara or Bamburde) is a rock-cut cave temple, carved out in the 8th century in the Rashtrakuta period.
- The temple, made of Basalt rock, is dedicated to the Hindu god Shiva.
- The temple was left incomplete, possibly because of a fault line found at the back of the sanctum sanctorum, which made the further sculpting unsafe, or political upheaval resulting in loss of
- A brass temple bell hangs outside the basalt entryway patronage.

Shaniwar Wada

- This palace was built by the successors of Shivaji, the Peshwas in 1736. A massive fire destroyed the building in 1827.
- This palace is situated in the heart of the city next to Deccan Gymkhana, Shivajinagar, and Laxmi Road.
- It has become the symbol of Pune culture.
- There is an impressive 'Light & Sound Show' in three languages (Marathi, Hindi and English) every evening at the wada. It details the history of the Maratha empire and the significance of the Shaniwar wada in that history.

Osho Ashram

- Osho is known for his revolutionary contribution to the science of inner transformation, with an approach to meditation that acknowledges the accelerated pace of contemporary life.
- OSHO Active Meditations are designed to first release the accumulated stresses of body and mind, so that it is then easier to take an experience of stillness and thought-free relaxation into daily life.
- It is a heady mix of spiritualism, and ancient, and modern idea of relaxation
