DUBAI & YAS ISLAND

~ PARIS OF THE MIDDLE EAST

DURATION: 4 N / 5 D

Overview

- Dubai has been dubbed the 'Paris of the Middle East' due to its captivating charm, distinctive culture and enchanting character that exudes a luxurious way of living that many only dream about. The surrounding area is home to a unique blend of timeless deserts which contrast with the modern city buildings that help to make Dubai such a mesmerizing holiday destination
- Although Dubai's dry, sub-tropical climate is uncomfortably hot during the summer months, for around eight months of the year it is extremely pleasant. Average temperatures range from 25 degrees C in January to 42 degrees C in July. There is very little rain, and most days are sunny. Evenings are cool and night times can be quite chilly. Despite its desert location, an efficient irrigation system keeps the city amazingly lush and green all year round, and there are many beautifully maintained parks and gardens.
