Overview

- Dehradun is nestled in mountain ranges of Himalayas and is highly reputed tourist destination with two beautiful rivers Ganga and Yamuna and the capital of Uttarakhand.
- Dehradun is renowned for its pleasant climate, educational institutes, historic civilization and various adventures activities.
- Popular for its unpredictable weather, also called as City Of Love.
- The name Dehradun is a melange of two words "Dera" which means camp and "Dun" which means valley.

Places to Visit

❑ Robber's Cave

Robber's cave is basically in the form of a cave with water flowing from the middle of it. One can spot a 10m high waterfall after walking through the stream of the river. Robber's cave is also known as Gucchipani. The cave has some extraordinary cold springs in the underground which in turn relaxes the body against the blistering heat.

❑ Sahastradhara

Sahastradhara literally means 'thousand-fold spring'. It is a popular attraction, famous for its ecstatic beauty and therapeutic value since its water contains Sulphur.

❑ Mindrolling Monastery

Mindrolling, which means "Place of Perfect Emancipation" in Tibetan language, is the largest Buddhist Vihara of India, training monks for over 300 years

❑ Har Ki Dun

Har Ki dun is a beautiful cradle shaped valley with untouched panoramic beauty. in Har Ki Dun you will find yourself surrounded by thick Pine forests and scintillating mountain peaks. This beautiful trail will take you to some of the most unexplored areas of Garhwal Himalayan region.

❑ Malsi Deer Park

Malsi Deer Park is situated in the beautiful city of Dehradun and is a heaven for nature lovers. One gets to explore the wilderness and unparalleled beauty here like never before. The park is home to a wide variety of flora and fauna. The park is mainly famous for deers. Apart from deer one can also spot Tiger, Peacock, Rabbits and Neelga.

❑ Forest Research Institute

The main attraction of this institute is the building itself, which has been constructed in Greco-Roman colonial style. This building houses six museums related to forestry, which include museums on social forestry, pathology, silviculture, timber, non-wood forest products and entomology. In addition, the place also houses a Botanical Garden, which is a popular picnic spot among travellers.

❑ Tapkeshwar Temple

Tapkeshwar Temple in Dehradun, also known as Tapkeshwar Mahadev Temple, is one of the most famous temples dedicated to Lord Shiva. Situated by the forest side, the main shivalinga at the temple is inside a natural cave. Water drops from the ceiling of the cave trickle down over the shivalinga in a continuous downpour, making for an interesting spectacle.

❑ Mall Road

It is a one stop place for shoppers and exhibits a wide range of products such as electronic items, ornaments, books, handicrafts and readymade garments. Though the main attraction in this place are the woolens items like Tibetan carpets, blankets and Garhwali shawls.
