

RUSSIA

St. Petersburg - City of Bridges

Duration : 2N/3D

Overview

- Saint Petersburg is the second largest city in Russia
- It was named Saint Petersburg in 1703. Because the city has essentially been built on a swamp, it has the deepest underground railway system in the world.
- St. Petersburg has the largest number of bridges of any city in the entire world and in entire Europe with 800 bridges in total if you include the city's surrounding suburbs.
- It is located on the Neva River at the head of the Gulf of Finland on the Baltic Sea.
- Two sphinxes carved from pink granite sit on the Neva River's Universitetskaya Embankment, brought to St. Petersburg from Egypt in the 1830's. Legend has it that the sphinxes' facial expressions change throughout the day, from smiling and happy during the day to dark and sinister at night.
- The Astoria hotel in Petersburg is where Hitler planned to hold a huge celebratory banquet once he'd conquered the city.
- May to September is best, with White Nights the peak. Winter is cold and dark, but beautiful. Go in early May and September to avoid the crowds.
